1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3       That the right of individuals, either individually or collec-
4       tively, to petition Congress, or any Member thereof; to 5       communicate directly or indirectly with any Member or 6       Members of Congress; or to furnish information to either
7       House of Congress, or to any committee or Member thereof
8       (unless the information furnished is in violation of Federal 9       law, or in violation of Federal regulations necessary to the 10      security and safety of the United States) shall not be 11      denied, restricted, or interfered with, and any person who

1 denies, restricts, or interferes with, or who conspires with 2 another to deny, restrict, or interfere with such right shall 3 be fined not more than $            and imprisoned for not 4 more than            years, or both.

5        SEC. 2. (a) The last paragraph of section 4 (a) of 6 the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended,
7 is hereby repealed.

8        (b) The last sentence of section 6 of the Act entitled 9 "An Act making appropriations for the service of the 10 Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 11 thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and for other 12 purposes", approved August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 555), is 13 hereby repealed.
